

Singing

IN THE NAVE — AND BEYOND: A CHURCH MUSIC WORKSHOP

*For Parishes Who Wish to Grow in Faith Through
Congregational
Singing*

This Ministry Workshop offers support and encouragement to local parishes who wish to advance the practice of congregational singing of hymns and responses within liturgical, paraliturgical, and home environments by a wide range of the faithful. These practices will in turn serve in teaching the tenets of the Orthodox faith to all ages in a holistic and organic way. The methods offered will take into consideration the vision, assets, and needs of an individual parish.

In the Workshop we will discover:

- The Orthodox roots of congregational singing
- The numerous benefits of congregational singing
- What Orthodox congregational singing is not
- The role of the clergy, chanters, choir, and congregation
- Practical considerations: What music, where, and when
- How to tailor a program to the needs of an individual parish
